AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend House Bill No. 305 by deleting subsections (a), (b), and (c) of Section 1 and substituting instead the following and relettering the remaining subsections:

(a) Any person who on June 30, 1983 is a state employee engaged in the administration or operation of a state-owned educational television station and who on or before July 1, 1986, without interruption of such state service becomes an employee of an educational television station transferred to the control of a local community agency, pursuant to the provisions of Sections 49-3851 -- 49-3859, may elect to remain a member of the state retirement system, provided that within ninety (90) days following the time at which employment of such person is transferred to the local community agency such employee files with the board of trustees a notice of his election to remain a member of the retirement system and provided such person continues to make the necessary employee contributions and does not subsequently become a member of a county or municipal employees' retirement system; and provided further that the local community agency shall be responsible for all employer costs incurred as a result of the employee electing to remain a member of the retirement system. Contributions shall be made at the same rate as employer contributions for state employees.

Any person who does not elect to remain a member of the retirement system within the time provided herein shall not thereafter be entitled to membership in the retirement system based upon his employment with the educational television network. Any person retiring from employment with a station covered by this Act may not draw benefits and continue his employment at a station covered by the provisions of this Act. It is further provided that any person who does elect to remain a member within the required time, but who subsequently decides to withdraw from the retirement system shall not be entitled to reenroll in the retirement system as long as he continues in the employ of the educational television network.

The local community agency as the employer of any person electing to remain a member of the retirement system in accordance with the provisions of Sections 49-3851 -- 49-3859 is authorized to pay the employer contributions for any state funds received to implement the provisions of Sections 49-3851 -- 49-3859. However, no additional fund shall be appropriated solely for the purpose of paying employer retirement costs. For the purposes of this section the local agency shall be regarded as the employing agency of those persons electing to remain members of the retirement system and shall be responsible for filing of any required reports.

(b) Any person who is employed by a state-owned educational television station as defined by subsection (a) above, may continue participation in the state insurance program by notifying the state insurance committee of his intent to participate and by making the required employee payments for coverage. Such notice shall be given within ninety (90) days of the transfer of control of the employing station. The local community agency shall be responsible for all employer costs incurred as a result of the employee electing to reeain a participant in the state insurance program. Contributions shall be made at the same rate as employer contributions for state employees.
